Georgia Trustees to induct Dooley, Nunn

Georgia Historical Society (GHS) has named the new Georgia Trustees selected to be added to the distinguished list of legendary Georgians: former UGA football coach Vince Dooley and former U.S. Senator Sam Nunn.

They will be inducted at the Trustees Gala on Feb. 12 at the Hyatt Regency Savannah.

In 2009, the Office of the Governor of the State of Georgia reconstituted the Georgia Trustees, an honor given to leaders that dates to the founding of the colony.

"Coach Dooley and Senator Nunn have exuded selflessness, leadership and honor in their life's work for all Georgians," said Dr. Todd Groce, president and CEO of GHS in a news release.
