Communications Intern Announced March 19, 2018

The Organization

Chartered by the Georgia General Assembly in 1839, the Georgia Historical Society is a private, nonprofit organization that serves as the historical society for the state of Georgia. GHS is the oldest cultural institution in Georgia and one of the oldest state historical societies in the nation. For 175 years, GHS has fulfilled its mission to collect, preserve, and share Georgia's history by presenting variety of educational programs, authoring publications on Georgia and southern history, and by operating a Research Center at its statewide headquarters in Savannah.

Position Summary

The Georgia Historical Society seeks an energetic Intern to assist with special projects and day-to-day operations– to include the 2019 Georgia History Festival events. Please visit georgiahistoryfestival.org for complete calendar and description of upcoming activities. Duties will include research, writing, and supervised management of social media platforms; assisting with event publicity; communication with local, state, and national media; media contact database management; providing support for the Georgia History Festival and Trustees Gala, the Georgia Historical Society Historical Marker Program and other GHS programs and events as needed.

Knowledge, skills and abilities

The position is well suited for undergraduate or graduate students seeking experience in public relations, non-profit management, and/or historical administration. This unpaid internship will provide great opportunities for candidates to gain valuable experience in the development and implementation of public relations materials, event collateral and management of social media platforms.

This position would require a 10-20 hour per week commitment.

The ideal candidate:

- Will have a strong interest in media and public relations, as well as history, educational programming, marketing, or event promotion.
- Must be flexible, organized with strong attention to detail, possess excellent writing and communications skills and a willingness to get the job done.
- Have basic knowledge of MS Word and Excel.
