Jan 9 - Savannah Banquet Will Cap State Historical Society Festival

SDN Staff Report

Jan. 9, 2012 -- The Georgia Historical Society's annual Trustees Gala on Feb. 11 culminates a two-week commemoration of Georgia history in a lavish banquet with the theme "Savannah Sol."

The fundraising event is the finale of the Georgia History Festival. The banquet draws Georgia's top business and civic leaders to honor and pay tribute to the best the state has produced.

The event at the Hyatt Regency, 2 W. Bay St., begins at 7 p.m.

With the "Savannah Sol" theme, the banquet will welcome guests into a Latin-inspired ballroom for an dining and entertainment, featuring the live music of Hot Sun Quartet.

The highlight of the Gala is the induction by the Governor of the year's Georgia Trustees, two Georgians who exemplify a lifetime of excellence in their work and philanthropic accomplishment. The 2012 Trustees -- real estate and sports franchise mogul Tom Cousins and former U.N. Ambassador and Atlanta Mayor Andrew Young -- will be on hand to receive their awards. Following the presentations, the new Trustees will engage in a moderated conversation, featuring questions on topics ranging from business to philanthropy to history and life philosophies.
