

GEORGIA

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES

WORMSLOE STATE HISTORIC SITE

2014 Colonial Faire and Muster

Saturday and Sunday, February 8 & 9, 2014 from 10AM-4PM

Gulfstream®

*Sponsored by the Georgia Historical Society & Gulfstream
Support also provided by the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Georgia*

Time	Activities	Map Location
10:00	First Cannon Firing Music for the Colonists	Military Camp Sutlers' Row
11:00	Music from Town & Tavern provided by "The Sons of Liberty" & Fort Morris Heritage Dancers	Sutlers' Row
12:00	Military Parade Leading to Opening Ceremony	From Tabby Ruins to Sutlers' Row
1-3:00	Book signing in Museum by Tom Wilson Author of "The Oglethorpe Plan" Saturday Only	Museum
2:00	Fort Morris Heritage Dancers (Public Welcome to Join in)	Sutler's Row
2:30	Benjamin Franklin and Savannah	Colonial Life Area
3:00	Military Drills and Final Musket Firing	Military Camp
4:00	Final Cannon Drill and Firing	Military Camp
4:15	Camps Closed to Public
Ongoing	Military Demonstrations Cannon firings at the top of the hour Musket firings at the bottom of the hour	Military Camp
	Colonial Tools & Skills Demonstrations	Colonial Life Area
	Native American Tools & Skills	Camp #3
	Colonial Cricket (Public invited to play)	Camp #1