Brass Surveyor's Compass, circa 1730s. Georgia Historical Society Objects Collection, A-1361-393.

PRIMARY SOURCES

GHS is home to 4 million manuscripts, 100,000 photographs, 30,000 architectural drawings, 15,000 rare and non-rare books, and thousands of maps, portraits, and artifacts. Digitization projects make thousands of these primary sources available online and GHS has created resources specifically to help teachers and students find and use primary sources in a classroom setting.

DIGITAL HISTORY

GHS has been publishing Georgia and American history since 1840 and remains committed to providing access to reliable material in the information age.

- Online exhibits

FIELD TRIPS

GHS offers unique field trip experiences to the Research Center in Savannah. Surrounded by the beauty of historic Hodgson Hall, students explore primary source materials from the collection and learn about archives, research, and history.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

GHS is committed to improving history education in Georgia by supporting teachers through high-quality professional development experiences at state and national conferences, periodic workshops, and with on-demand resources.

GEORGIA HISTORY FESTIVAL

GHS presents a variety of public programs, exhibits, in-school events, and educational resources each school year for the Georgia History Festival.
