The Culinary Thomas Jefferson

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2017 • 7:30 P.M.

THE OLDE PINK HOUSE

23 ABERCORN STREET, SAVANNAH

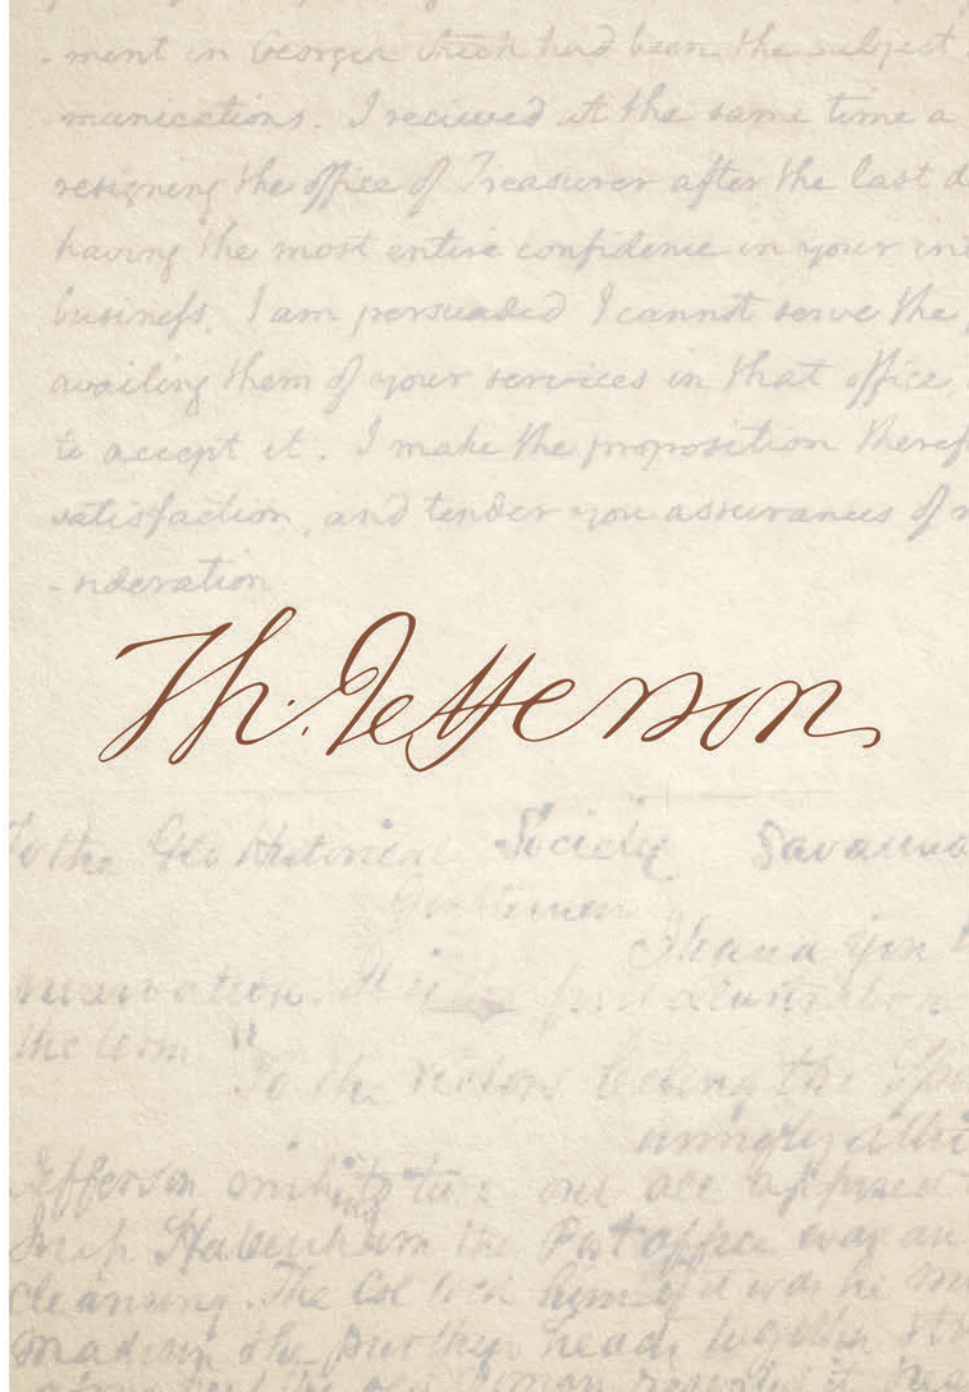

Join the Olde Pink House Restaurant and the Georgia Historical Society for cocktails and a specially-curated menu inspired by the lavish hospitality enjoyed at Thomas Jefferson's Monticello.

Share a toast with our honored guest Dr. Alan Taylor, two-time Pulitzer Prize winner and Thomas Jefferson Foundation Chair at the University of Virginia. Dine, as Daniel Webster observed, in Jefferson's "half Virginian, half French style, in good taste and abundance" and enjoy lively conversation throughout the evening with your fellow post-revolutionary Americans.

Featuring period materials from the archival collection of the Georgia Historical Society.

Cost: $125 per person for GHS and UVaClub members
$175 per person for non-members

Limited seats are available. Reservations required.
RSVP by October 18 at 912-651-2125, ext. 110 or email
RSVP@georgiahistory.com.
