

Teaching the Civil Rights Movement through the Georgia Historical Marker Program
Participant Registration Form

Please complete this form and attach to the online registration for Teaching the Civil Rights Movement through the Georgia Historical Marker Program professional development program.

By completing this form each participant in a pair agrees to commit to a ten-week online course with the Georgia Historical Society. Participants should anticipate spending a total of 2-3 hours of time per week, for both independent learning activities and a weekly 1-hour online meeting. Participating pairs will learn strategies for using the Georgia Historical Marker Program with primary sources from the collections of the Library of Congress and the Georgia Historical Society to teach the American Civil Rights Movement and create inquiry-based lessons featuring project-based activities based on the Inquiry Design Model. The course will be delivered through a combination of online materials such as readings, videos, and assignments completed outside of class, and a weekly one-hour meeting held online for participants to collaborate, discuss, and learn from course instructors.

This course is free to participants and will be filled on a first come, first served basis. Weekly 1-hour meetings will take place after school hours and should not require hiring a substitute. Each participant who completes at least 90% of required course assignments, including submitting a final lesson based on the Inquiry Design Model will receive a certificate of completion confirming fulfillment of 20 professional development hours.

Course Dates: Week of January 17, 2022 – Week of March 21, 2022, with exact dates and times to follow.
