AFFILIATE CHAPTER PROGRAM

WHAT IS IT?

- A statewide network of local historical organizations
- An opportunity to share information and learn from other historical organizations
- An opportunity to help build a more informed network of institutions for the purpose of collecting, preserving, and sharing Georgia history

The Georgia Historical Society (GHS) Affiliate Chapter Program works to support local historical organizations across the state by building a network of institutions with a commitment to Georgia history. GHS offers a variety of services and resources to Affiliate Chapter members, including consultations, guest speakers and workshops, subscriptions to GHS publications, and publicity.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR MEMBERSHIP?

- Not-For-Profit organizations whose mission is consistent with that of the Georgia Historical Society
- Including historical and genealogical societies, commissions, museums, foundations, archives, preservation organizations, churches, and patriotic groups

The Georgia Historical Society's Affiliate Chapter Program is a statewide network that assists local historical organizations in better preserving the history of their community and ultimately our state. The program provides resources to local historical organizations and opportunities for those groups to learn from each other, thereby developing a more informed network of institutions dedicated to the collection, preservation, and dissemination of Georgia's history.

Today that network includes nearly two hundred local historical organizations throughout the state of Georgia and beyond. Affiliate membership is open to all not-for-profit organizations whose mission is consistent with that of the Georgia Historical Society. Members include historical and genealogical societies, commissions, museums, foundations, archives, preservation organizations, churches, and patriotic groups. Benefits of Affiliate membership include the following:

CONSULTATION VISITS

GHS's staff offers consultation services, assessments, and advice pertaining to archival- and museum-related issues.

HISTORY PROGRAMS

Speakers are available to present programs year-round on a statewide basis.

WORKSHOPS

Workshops on a variety of archival- and museum-related topics are arranged across the state upon request.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Each Affiliate receives the Georgia Historical Quarterly,

Georgia History Today, Highlights, and invitations to GHS activities and events.

PUBLICITY

Affiliates are invited to publicize their activities in Highlights, and to submit their brochures for distribution at the GHS headquarters in Savannah.

PUBLICATION DISCOUNTS

Affiliates may purchase GHS publications for their library at a 10% discount, or for resale as a fund raiser at a 40% discount.

AFFILIATE CERTIFICATE

Each Affiliate receives a certificate verifying its status as a Georgia Historical Society Affiliate member.

Historical organizations throughout Georgia are invited to become a partner in this exciting program. Affiliate membership in GHS is determined by the organizational budget size.
