AFFILIATE CHAPTER PROGRAM

What is it?

- A statewide network of local historical organizations
- An opportunity to share information and learn from other historical organizations
- An opportunity to help build a more informed network of institutions for the purpose of collecting, preserving, and sharing Georgia history

The Georgia Historical Society (GHS) Affiliate Chapter Program works to support local historical organizations across the state by building a network of institutions with a commitment to Georgia history. GHS offers a variety of services and resources to Affiliate Chapter members, including consultations, guest speakers and workshops, subscriptions to GHS publications, and publicity.

Who is Eligible for Membership?

- Not-For-Profit organizations whose mission is consistent with that of the Georgia Historical Society
- Including historical and genealogical societies, commissions, museums, foundations, archives, preservation organizations, churches, and patriotic groups

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

The Georgia Historical Society's Affiliate Chapter Program is a statewide network that assists local historical organizations in better preserving the history of their community and ultimately our state. The program provides resources to local historical organizations and opportunities for those groups to learn from each other, thereby developing a more informed network of institutions dedicated to the collection, preservation, and dissemination of Georgia's history.

Today that network includes nearly two hundred local historical organizations throughout the state of Georgia and beyond. Affiliate membership is open to all not-for-profit organizations whose mission is consistent with that of the Georgia Historical Society. Members include historical and genealogical societies, commissions, museums, foundations, archives, preservation organizations, churches, and patriotic groups. Benefits of Affiliate membership include the following:

Affiliate Chapter Directory – Access to a directory of other Affiliate Chapter members and useful contacts within history-related fields.

Consultation visits – The GHS staff can offer technical services and advice pertaining to archival- and museum-related issues.

GHS Speaker's Bureau – This is an Affiliates-only benefit and is available upon request. Fees may be associated with the request of GHS staff or GHS recommended speakers.

Webinars – Informational and training webinars on a variety of archival and museum related topics keep member organizations up-to-date on strategies, resources, opportunities available to history organizations in Georgia.

Subscriptions – Each Affiliate receives the Georgia Historical Quarterly, Georgia History Today, and the quarterly Highlights for the Affiliate Chapters, and invitations to GHS activities.

Publicity – Affiliates are invited to publicize their activities in Highlights, and to submit their brochures for distribution at the GHS Research Center.

Affiliate Chapter Program Logo – Available on request, a digital Affiliate Chapter Program logo to promote affiliate status.

Publication Discounts – Affiliates may purchase GHS publications at a 20% discount, or for resale as a fundraiser at a 40% discount.

Discounts – Discounts on photocopies, research fees, and photograph orders made through GHS. Click here to see the full Discount Policy.
